The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Office of Minority Health (OMH)
Training Invitation

Dear Colleagues,

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Office of Minority Health (OMH) in partnership with The National Association of State Offices of Minority Health (NASOMH) and The Association of State and Territorial Health Officials (ASTHO) have formed the States, Islands, and Territories Health Equity - Community of Practice (SITHE-COP). The SITHE-COP will focus on sustained engagement of States and Territories in capacity building activities and peer-to-peer knowledge exchange for developing and incorporating health disparity/health equity objectives in health plans. We would like you to join us for our first virtual training on August 24th, 2022 from 2:00 – 3:30 p.m. EST.

The training, “Best Practices in Developing Health Equity Objectives: The Key to Unlocking State and Federal-Level Funding,” will focus on helping you make your current SMART objectives SMART-er.

Please register for “Best Practices in Developing Health Equity Objectives: The Key to Unlocking State and Federal-Level Funding” by submitting your contact information via email to SITHE-COP@WilliamsConsultingLLC.com. In response to that submission, you will receive a Zoom calendar invite for the August 24th training.

We look forward to seeing you at the event.

Respectfully,

US Department of Health and
Office of Minority Health

National Association of State
Offices of Minority Health

Association of State and Territorial Health Officials
