

B-Introduction

B-100 Authority

This document is considered the Authority under which OAAS and Support Coordination Agencies (SCAs) must abide by.

It is the responsibility of the SCAs to assure that they are operating in accordance with the requirements outlined in the Rules, Standards, Statutes, Regulations, and other documents as promulgated in accordance with State and Federal law, the Administrative Procedures Act, and other relevant methods as required by law, including the OAAS Support Coordination Agency Performance Agreement.

B-200 Purpose

This document is designed to set forth program operational procedures for Support Coordination Agencies (SCAs) and all Home and Community-Based Services (HCBS) Waivers administered by OAAS.
