Section 7 – General Provisions 7.4. Medicaid Disaster Relief for the COVID-19 National Emergency

On March 13, 2020, the President of the United States issued a proclamation that the COVID-19 outbreak in the United States constitutes a national emergency by the authorities vested in him by the Constitution and the laws of the United States, including sections 201 and 301 of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.), and consistent with section 1135 of the Social Security Act (Act). On March 13, 2020, pursuant to section 1135(b) of the Act, the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services invoked his authority to waive or modify certain requirements of titles XVIII, XIX, and XXI of the Act as a result of the consequences COVID-19 pandemic, to the extent necessary, as determined by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), to ensure that sufficient health care items and services are available to meet the needs of individuals enrolled in the respective programs and to ensure that health care providers that furnish such items and services in good faith, but are unable to comply with one or more of such requirements as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, may be reimbursed for such items and services and exempted from sanctions for such noncompliance, absent any determination of fraud or abuse. This authority took effect as of 6PM Eastern Standard Time on March 15, 2020, with a retroactive effective date of March 1, 2020. The emergency period will terminate, and waivers will no longer be available, upon termination of the public health emergency, including any extensions.

The State Medicaid agency (agency) seeks to implement the policies and procedures described below, which are different than the policies and procedures otherwise applied under the Medicaid state plan, during the period of the Presidential and Secretarial emergency declarations related to the COVID-19 outbreak (or any renewals thereof), or for any shorter period described below:

N/A

NOTE: States may not elect a period longer than the Presidential or Secretarial emergency declaration (or any renewal thereof). States may not propose changes on this template that restrict or limit payment, services, or eligibility, or otherwise burden beneficiaries and providers.

b. Payments are increased through:
i. \underline{X} A supplemental payment or add-on within applicable upper payment limits:
Effective January 10, 2023, nurses that provide extended home health (EHH) services may be eligible to receive recruitment and retention bonuses through May 11, 2023. A nurse is an individual who possesses and maintains a valid license as a licensed practical nurse (LPN) or registered nurse (RN).

TN: 23-0003 Approval Date: _____ Effective Date: January 10, 2023

All payments shall be administered by the home health agency (HHA) that employs the nurse. If a nurse is employed at multiple agencies, only one HHA may pay the recruitment and retention payment.

HHAs shall submit an invoice and supporting documentation for each nurse that meets the requirements on a monthly basis and shall comply with all other requirements established by Louisiana Department of Health (LDH) to receive a payment.

HHAs shall disburse the entire payment to the nurse and are prohibited from reducing the payment in any way. HHAs that provide the required documentation, comply with all applicable requirements, and have at least one nurse a month receiving a bonus payment will be eligible to invoice LDH for an administrative fee of $2,500 each month.

Recruitment is the hiring of a new nurse who commits to providing a minimum of 120 hours of EHH services to beneficiaries under the age of 21 who are in a Medicaid program in each calendar month.

A one-time, lump sum payment of $5,000 may be paid to any nurse who is hired by the HHA and commits to providing a minimum of 120 hours of EHH services to beneficiaries and has not received the retention lump sum bonus payment. Each nurse may only receive the lump sum recruitment bonus payment once.

Existing nurses who commit to providing a minimum of 120 hours of EHH services to eligible beneficiaries in a calendar month and have not received the recruitment or retention lump sum bonus payment will receive a $5,000 retention bonus.

Nurses who receive the recruitment or retention lump sum bonus payment shall be eligible to receive a monthly payment of $200 if they provided at least 120 hours of EHH services to eligible beneficiaries during the previous calendar month.

Except as otherwise noted in the Plan, state-developed fee schedule rates are the same for both governmental and private providers of home health services. All rates are published on the agency's website at www.lamedicaid.com.
