2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1053005*NAME: TOWN OF LAKE ARTHUR WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
2892	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1055003*NAME: CITY OF BROUSSARD WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
5151	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

NAME: LPWDN WILDERNESS TRAIL

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1644	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

PWS ID: LA1059017

NAME: EAST JENA WATER SYSTEM INC.

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
990	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1061007*NAME: GREATER WARD 1 WATERWORKS DISTRICT

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
3333	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1061015*NAME: MT ZION WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1635	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
591	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1063118*NAME: DIVERSION WATER - CYPRESS POINT

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
114	Notify customers of reports availability for review by hand, mail, or posting in public places.
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1065005*NAME: BAYOU MACON WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1041	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1067009*NAME: MER ROUGE WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1098	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
7335	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

Electronic copies of the reports can be found in the Consumer Confidence Reports section at <http://ldh.la.gov/ccr>.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1073060*NAME: CADEVILLE WATER DISTRICT

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
4980	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

PWS ID: LA1073100

NAME: CHENIERE DREW NORTH WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
11280	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. 2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1077026*NAME: NEW ROADS WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
9024	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
357	Notify customers of reports availability for review by hand, mail, or posting in public places.
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1079020*NAME: RAPIDES ISLAND WATER ASSOCIATION INC

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
5814	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1079037*NAME: WARD 6 WATER ASSOCIATION OF RAPIDES

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1125	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1081006*NAME: MARTIN WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1350	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. 2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1085053*NAME: BELMONT WATERWORKS INC

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
2805	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1091004*NAME: GREENSBURG WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1340	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
2598	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1097035*NAME: ST LANDRY WWD 3 PORT BARRE AREA B

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
516	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1099003*NAME: CITY OF BREAUX BRIDGE WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
8754	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. 2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1099009*NAME: UNITED WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
4446	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. 2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1101003*NAME: FRANKLIN WATER SUPPLY

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
8500	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1103033*NAME: ST TAMMANY WATER DIST 2

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
5200	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

Electronic copies of the reports can be found in the Consumer Confidence Reports section at <http://ldh.la.gov/ccr>.

Mail signed and completed form and final copy of report to:

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.
