2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1103071*NAME: MANGANOS MOBILE HOME PARK

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
234	Notify customers of reports availability for review by hand, mail, or posting in public places.
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
306	Notify customers of reports availability for review by hand, mail, or posting in public places.
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

PWS ID: LA1103139

NAME: LAKE RAMSEY

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
840	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

Electronic copies of the reports can be found in the Consumer Confidence Reports section at <http://ldh.la.gov/ccr>.

Mail signed and completed form and final copy of report to:

Attn: Spencer Hillyard, CCR Compliance

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

PWS ID: LA1103154

NAME: ST TAM PARISH - ST GERTRUDE

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
72	Notify customers of reports availability for review by hand, mail, or posting in public places.
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1107004*NAME: ST JOSEPH WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1332	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1111002*NAME: CORNEY WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
249	Notify customers of reports availability for review by hand, mail, or posting in public places.
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. ☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1111017*NAME: WEST STERLINGTON WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1095	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. 2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1506	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1115032*NAME: VILLAGE OF SIMPSON WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1116	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

PWS ID: LA1115090

NAME: SANDY HILL WATER & SEWER

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
600	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1119021*NAME: MINDEN WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
16281	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1119027*NAME: SIBLEY WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1950	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1119034*NAME: GIL-GAL WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
1551	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.
Certified by: Signature: _____ Printed Name/Job Title: _____ / _____ Date of CCR Report Delivery: ____/____/____ Type of Delivery: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> (I have attached a copy of the report and notification provided to consumers) Direct URL (Electronic delivery only): _____

If the CCR is delivered by posting, mail out, or by hand, a copy of the pamphlet or mail out, even if no changes were made, must be attached to the returned certification form. Copies of the report must be kept for three years and made available to the public or the State upon request. Any questions or requests can be addressed to Spencer Hillyard (spencer.hillyard@la.gov/225-342-0272) or Sean Nolan (sean.nolan@la.gov/225-342-7495).

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORMPWS ID: LA1123006*NAME: OAK GROVE WATER SYSTEM

The Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) must be delivered to your consumers by 06/30/2025 and certification must be submitted to the State no later than 09/30/2025.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
3102	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.

The CCR must be distributed with a "good-faith effort" based on the population served by the Community Water System (CWS) as shown:
Population	Delivery Method
840	Must mail or otherwise directly deliver one copy of the report to every customer or publish the report in one or more local newspapers serving the area (if publishing in newspaper, the CWS must notify the customers that the report will not be mailed (include in newspaper or in bill))
As an alternative to mailing the CCR, the CWS has the option of choosing an electronic delivery method . On the reverse side of this page, you will find options for electronic delivery that meet the "mail or otherwise directly deliver" requirement of the CCR Rule. If choosing to distribute the report electronically, you must check the option(s) used on the reverse side of this page and complete all required elements. You may also use a combination of the above delivery method and electronic delivery to reach all consumers.
The below noted community public water system confirms that its 2024 Consumer Confidence Report has been prepared and delivered to its consumers in accordance with the appropriate delivery method based on population served. Furthermore, the system certifies that the information contained in the report is correct and consistent with the compliance monitoring data previously submitted to the privacy agency as well as fulfilling all CCR requirements of CFR Title 40, Part 141.

2024 CCR CERTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION FORM

Electronic delivery of the CCR for bill-paying consumers

You may use a combination of electronic delivery and paper delivery methods to best ensure delivery to all consumers served by the water system. (check all that apply to your delivery method)

☐ Option 1: Mail Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS mails to each bill-paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet where it can be viewed. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement. The mail method for the notification may be, but is not limited to, a water bill insert, statement on the water bill or community newsletter. Notices should be repeated to ensure awareness by consumers.

☐ Option 2: Email Notice¹ – notification that the CCR is on a publically available website² via a direct URL

CWS emails to each bill paying consumer a notification that the CCR is available and provides a direct URL to the CCR on a publically available site¹ on the internet. A URL that navigates to a webpage that requires a consumer to search for the CCR or enter other information does not meet the “directly deliver” requirement.

☐ Option 3: Email – CCR sent as an attachment to the email

CWS emails the CCR as an electronic file email attachment (e.g. portable document format (PDF), word document, etc.)

☐ Option 4: Email – CCR sent as an embedded image in an email

CWS delivers CCR text and tables inserted into the body of an email

¹The following must be included in the paper/email notice

1. The direct URL to the CCR
2. A short description indicating what the CCR report provides. (see below example and EPA memo at the URL given at the bottom of this page)

Example bill message:

You can view the annual water quality report on-line at “insert your direct url here”. This report contains important information about the source and quality of your drinking water. Please contact “insert contact information” if you would like a report mailed to you.

Note: You must insert your own url address and contact information into the message.

3. A means in providing consumers the ability to request a paper copy of the report (e.g. return mailer, phone number, etc.)

²The water system must have control of the publically available website where the CCR is located to ensure continuous display and the ability to make changes as needed. The current CCR must be posted continuously until an updated CCR becomes available.

Note for options 2-4: If a consumer does not have an e-mail or an email is returned as undeliverable, the water system must send a paper copy of the CCR to the consumer.
